Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Pat.

No. 6,845,534 to Huang.

Claim 1, Huang discloses a side sleeping pillow combination comprising.

a main pillow cushion 101 having an underside, a front and rear edge and a pair of side edges, and a side pad (102) adjacent each of said side edges, said side pad capable of folding under said main pillow whereby a space (103) is created between said side pads, said space traversing the underside of said main pillow from said front edge to said rear edge (fig. 4).

Claim 2, wherein said side pads include a pair of pads with spacing there-between.

Claim 3, further comprising a pillowcase 12 for providing the associated spacing between said pillow and said pads.

Claim 4, further comprising a pillowcase 12 for providing the associated spacing between said pillow and said pads.

Art Unit: 3673

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Pat. No. 6,158,813 to Karash.

Claim 1, Karash discloses a sleeping pillow combination comprising.

a main pillow cushion 42 having an underside, a front and rear edge and a pair of side edges, and

a side pad (32,36) adjacent each of said side edges, said side pad capable of folding under said main pillow whereby a space is created between said side pads, said space traversing the underside of said main pillow from said front edge to said rear edge (fig. 4).

Claim 2, wherein said side pads include a pair of pads (32,36) with spacing therebetween.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
